

Boston March 31, 1872

My dear Garrison,

<sup>19</sup> You will not be surprised to learn that your old friend Miss Robie passed away yesterday evening with very little apparent suffering. No one can regret that she has been removed from this life, which for a long time had been nothing to her but a hopeless burden. Yet it is sad to think that I shall never see again on this earth, one whom I have known and loved all my life.

The funeral will be at 8 Park Square on Tuesday afternoon at half past two. The funeral will not be advertised in the newspapers. But if you, one of her oldest friends, or any of your family, wish to be present, we shall be glad to see you. Dr J. A.

Clarke will make the prayer

Yours most truly
J E Sewall
